CALLING HOURS AND FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR FRANKLIN COUNTY SHERIFF JAMES KARNES

(Columbus, Ohio) Calling hours for the late Franklin County Sheriff James Karnes will be held on Tuesday, June 7 from 2-8 p.m. at Veterans Memorial in the North Exhibition Hall located at 300 W. Broad Street.

Doors will be open to the media beginning at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, June 7. Reporters and cameras may attend the calling hours as well as the 8 p.m. Fraternal Order of Police Service at Veterans Memorial.

Live Feed trucks may park behind the Veterans Memorial building.

Funeral Services will begin promptly at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, June 8 at Veterans Memorial in the North Exhibition Hall.

During the funeral service, a press riser will be available, along with a molt box. 600 feet of cable will be necessary to reach the cameras from the trucks parked behind Veterans Memorial. Cameras will not be permitted anywhere other than the press riser during the service. However, multiple cameras are allowed on the press riser. Live Tech, will be streaming live HD feed (Audio & Visual) that can be tapped into.

Following the service, the funeral procession will proceed from Veterans Memorial east on Broad St to High St., then south, passing the Franklin County Courthouse and Sheriff's Office located at 410 S. High St. and on to Greenlawn Ave., where they'll take 71 South to 270 West to the Georgesville exit, ending at Oak Grove Cemetery located at Alkire and Gardner Road.

Media are invited to respectfully attend the graveside service.
